KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Black ABOVE—TWO WARMER SHOW; If Black's BEHIND—COLDER (will be); Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

A LITTLE BOUQUET.

When a pair of red lips are upturned to your own.

With no one to gossip about it. Do you pray for endurance to let them alone? Well, maybe you do—but I doubt it.

When a sly little hand you're permitted to seize. With a velvety softness about it. Do you think you could drop it with never a squeeze? Well, maybe you can—but I doubt it.

When a tapering waist is in reach of your arm. With a wonderful plumpness about it. Do you argue the point 'twixt the good and the harm? Well, maybe you do—but I doubt it.

And if by these tricks you should capture a heart. With a womanly sweetness about it. Will you guard it and keep it, and act the good part? Well, maybe you will—but I doubt it.

THE L. and N. depot at Cynthiana has been burned.

An unknown floater was found in the river at Greenup.

MRS. JAMES ASHURY died at her home near Fern Leaf of consumption. She leaves a husband and three children. The funeral occurred at 10 o'clock this morning at her late residence. Interment at Germantown.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of James D. Gunn are requested to settle at once. Persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present same without delay.

FRANK P. O'DONNELL, Assignee of James D. Gunn.

THE people of St. Joseph, Mo., not only enter a vigorous protest against the proposed removal to Chicago, for exhibition at the World's Fair, of the house in which Bob Ford killed Jesse James, but have taken steps to quell the abominable scheme by having the house torn down.

THE Michigan World's Fair Board has engaged agents to attend all country and other fairs in the state the coming fall, to secure the first premium exhibits of farm products that they may be drawn upon for the state's exhibit at the World's Fair. Premiums are offered for the best collections of grains and grasses.

WILLIAM BARCLAY of Covington has been making butter for the Cincinnati market. It is composed of 39.48% water, 16.34% salt, 1.34% curd and 46.84% fats, 30% of which are foreign fats. It is also colored artificially. This is a very bad butter, and the Ohio Food Commissioner will see that Barclay's bad butter business is busted.

WILLIAM SULLIVAN, who has held the position of mail distributor in the Cincinnati Postoffice for nearly 50 years, having served under almost every Postmaster since Henry Spencer was Mayor, beginning when the Postoffice was on Third street, has been relieved temporarily by Postmaster Zumstein. Mr. Sullivan is now nearly 70 years of age and was relieved on account of an aggravated attack of erysipelas.

"THE PUBLIC LEDGER had very much the appearance of a Star Spangled Banner on the Fourth. Mr. Davis is nothing if not patriotic, and is a bustling newspaper man. We are indebted to his paper for numerous news items that are of interest to our readers, but we never quote his political editorials." Thus saith THE Robertson Advance. Well, neighbor, if you'd only go the whole figure you'd be so much happier.

ABOUT 5 o'clock yesterday morning a man was found lying along side of the tracks of the C. and O. Railroad at Newport in an unconscious condition, having been struck sometime during the night by a passing train. He was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Covington, and died shortly after reaching there. From papers found in his pocket his name is supposed to be J. Kenney. Upon inquiry it was learned that he lived somewhere in Ohio, and the officials will make an effort to locate his relatives.

SPEAKER MOORE has announced the following committee, which is to act with three members of the Senate in the selection of not less than four sites for the State Capital and report bids: Representative Hart of Fleming, Whitaker of Covington, Frazee of Maysville, Spalding of Marion and Pettit of Daviess. The friends of Louisville and Lexington are indignant at the complexion of the committee, as it is, they claim, packed in favor of Frankfort. All the committee, with the exception of Dr. Frazee, it is believed, lean to the present location.

D. K. WATSON of Ohio is Washington on a sad and a somewhat singular mission. Three weeks ago his brother died in Durango, Mexico. When it was attempted to bring his body home it was found that a Mexican law forbids the removal from the country of the body of any stranger or person not a citizen of Mexico dying there, under five years after death. General Watson is making an endeavor to secure the suspension of this law in this case if possible through Administration officials and the Mexican Minister, so that the body may be brought home for interment.

CORONER F. A. DAVIS of Newport visited the scene of the Licking Bridge disaster and witnessed the drawing of the piles, to the alleged spreading of which the recent terrible accident was attributed. All those standing in the water were tried, but not one of them could be budged, although extra heavy chains were used and were also broken. An attempt was made to drive the piling further with a forty-four hundred-pound hammer, the largest ever used in that vicinity, but it had no effect, and the only way to remove the piling now left is to break them off, which will probably be done.

When arrested he confessed that he had broken into the house of John Washington, and had stolen a silver cup, several articles of clothing and $4. He also went to the patrol-house at Central Station and stole several brushes. When asked what he did with the money he had taken, he replied that he had spent it for a fine breakfast.

THE largest masonry dam in the world has lately been completed in India, in connection with the new Waterworks for the city of Bombay. It is about two miles in length, 118 feet high and 100 feet thick at its greatest depth. The lake covers an area of eight square miles, and will furnish a supply of 100,000,000 gallons per day. The dam has been five and one-half years in process of construction and from 9,000 to 12,000 men and 800 carts and animals have been employed upon it.

THE case of Emory White, administrator of the estate of Dr. W. W. White, deceased, against the Equitable Assurance Society, which has been on trial for several days in the Warren Circuit Court, has been decided in favor of the insurance company. Dr. White was a young physician of Warren county. Some time ago he committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. He held a policy in the Equitable, but the company refused to pay it, and suit was brought to enforce payment with the result that the company wins the suit, and will not have to pay the policy.

W. A. OWEN, a lumber merchant, who until lately was connected with the Louisville Spoke Factory, is suspected of being a bigamist. Last Tuesday Mr. Owen and Miss Lizzie Zimmerman, a fashionable dressmaker of Louisville, were married at the residence of Rev. J. W. Lumer. Immediately after the marriage they left for St. Louis, where they are supposed to be now. Owen had been living in South Louisville, but several months ago his wife and children went to Delphos, O., their former home. Soon after their departure Mr. Owen met Miss Zimmerman. It was a case of love at first sight. The bride's friends say that Miss Zimmerman was ignorant of the groom's former marriage.

A GOOD joke is told by a civil engineer who recently visited Mt. Sterling, says THE Journal. He said that while locating the Kentucky Central Railroad from Winchester to Richmond he found, when the Kentucky river was reached, that a tunnel would have to be made in the hill opposite. The surveyors had their instruments set trying to locate the tunnel, when an old man came up and asked what "they was doin' now?" They explained to him, and he said: "I have lived here high on to seventy years, and have seen some curious things, but if you fellows think you kin make me believe an engine and train is goin' to run down here and jump that river and hit that hole ever time, you can't do it."
